Each week, the organiser will post a question on the print24 Facebook fansite, which the participants must answer in the form of a comment to the post.

By posting his comment, the participant shall confirm his consent to the participation conditions and his being of legal age. In order to participate, it is necessary that all the details concerning the person of the participant provided to the organiser correspond to the truth. The organiser shall not be obliged to check their correctness or undertake enquiries in this regard.

The participant shall undertake not to post any illegal contents in his comments. He shall indemnify the organiser from any and all third-party claims arising from said illegal contents posted on the print24 Facebook fansite via his Facebook account on first demand.

Employees of the organiser or its affiliated companies, including their family members, are not allowed to enter. This also applies to participants who close their Facebook account before the competition has ended.

The organiser is entitled to exclude certain people from participation if there is good reason for this, e.g. a breach of entry conditions, participation through third parties (agents, joint participation etc.), registration through a provider whose business purpose includes manipulating competitions or other unauthorised influencing of competitions etc. In such cases, winnings may also be disallowed and retracted in retrospect.

2. Awarding of prizes

The winners shall be decided by draw from among the participants from the countries listed in Item 1, who have posted a comment relating to the question posed by the organiser under conditions of random selection. The draw for the winners will take place on the “Glücksfee” (Good Luck Fairy) Karma fansite: <http://blog.fanpagekarma.com/2013/08/29/die-karma-gluecksfee-zieht-eure-gewinner-fur-euch/?lang=de> within one calendar week following the end of the participation phase. Only one prize per participant is possible. Transfer of the prize to other persons or cash payment is excluded. The winners will be announced on the Facebook page. If a winner does not contact the organiser within 5 days following notification, his/her entitlement to the prize shall be forfeited. The assertion of claims of any kind against the organiser shall be excluded. The participant shall be responsible for the correctness of the personal data provided (name, email address). The announcement of the winners shall be subject to correction.

3. Prize

For each round of participation, the following prizes will be drawn from among all the participants under conditions of random selection:

Round 1: 1 x Kindle Paperwhite

Round 2: 1 x Fitbit Charge

Round 3: 1 x Beats by Dr. Dre Pill

Round 4: 1 x €50 Amazon voucher

The dispatch of the prize shall take place not earlier than 2 weeks following the announcement of the winner. If delivery of the prize should prove unreasonable for any reason, the winner will receive a replacement of equivalent value.

4. Change in conditions of entry / Competition termination

The organiser reserves the right to change the conditions of entry at any time, or to suspend or terminate the draw in part or in full for just cause, without prior notice. This particularly applies in circumstances which may disrupt or prevent smooth running of the competition/draw, e.g. in the event of computer viruses, errors in software and/or hardware and/or other technical reasons resulting in significant impairment. This also applies in the event that the running of the competition is significantly compromised or prevented for legal reasons, and in the event of manipulation or attempted manipulation impacting on the management, security, integrity and/or correct and proper execution of the draw. Insofar as suspension or termination is the result of participant actions, the organiser is entitled to demand compensation from the participant for the resulting damage. This does not affect further organiser claims.

5. Organiser liability

The organiser is only liable – regardless of the legal grounds – if damages are based on deliberate intent or gross negligence, or in the event of culpable breach of an important obligation during the promotion, including the prize draw.

If, as per the paragraph above, the organiser is liable for the breach of an obligation without this involving deliberate intent or gross negligence, the liability is limited to the extent to be typically expected by the organiser at the start of the competition.

The above rules do not apply in the case of culpably caused death, physical injury or harm to health, or to claims for which liability must be assumed by law. Insofar as the organiser's liability is excluded or limited as per the rules above, this also applies to the personal liability of institutions, employees, representatives and assistants.

6. Privacy policy

The organiser only collects and uses the participants' personal information insofar as this is permitted by law, or the participants consent to this.

The following personal data of the participants will be recorded by the organiser and solely used for the purpose of designing, organising and processing the competition: name of participant, email address and country of residence. The participant shall be liable for the correctness and completeness of the data specified as well as of any subsequent changes.

Participants shall agree to their names being published on Facebook and elsewhere if they win. With their participation, they shall give their consent for their personal data to be used to send them newsletters on current offers by the organiser. Participants may revoke this consent at any time.

Participants shall at all times be entitled to the right of information relating to their personal data stored, its origin, recipient as well as the purpose of storing. Furthermore, they can correct, block or delete their data recorded by the organiser. Participants can also revoke their consent for their data to be used for advertising information at any time. In order to exercise the aforementioned rights, it is sufficient to send a message in text form to:

7. Other

Should certain provisions of these conditions of entry be or become invalid, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining conditions. They shall be replaced by an appropriate rule whose purpose is as close as possible to that of the invalid original. German law shall apply.
